convulsed the crowd with merriment.

Neither could finish the course in the required five minutes.

The weather was fine and attendance

Missing Link raced to the front and showed the way to the stretch, followed by Marjoram, Damon and Monte Carlo close at hand. They held this order to the stretch, where Marjoram went to the front and won cleverly by half a leagth from Missing Link, who was half a length in front of Monte Carlo.

Only Two Finish in Jump. Fulminate was a warm favorite in the steeplednase. He took the lead at the start and made the running followed by Walter Cleary and Royelle to the club-house jump, where Royelle fell. At the next jump Walter Cleary fell and this left Fulminate with a big lead. Perion also refused, so that the race was left to Fulminate and Hark Forward. Fulminate led to the stretch, where Hark Forward closed and in a rattling finish won by two lengths.

Jack Lory Handy Winner. In the Albany Stakes Jack Lory was a red hot favorite. The opening price of t to 5 was eagerly taken, and he went to the post at olds-on. Chrystis rushed to the front at the start and set the bace to the stretch, followed by McChord, Blue Bird and Jack Lory. They ran this way to the turn, where McChord out. There Jack Lory closed on Chrysitis and in the stretch went to the front and won handliv by two lengths. Chrystis was four lengths in front of Dandillon.

Jane Holly Wins in Drive.

Kickshaw and Geranium cut out the running in the fifth to the far turn, where Gerasium had enough and began to back up. Rounding the home turn Jane Holly went to the front, and in a hard drive through the stretch just lasted long enough to beat Garnish a head. Kickshaw stopped as usual and was a poor third.

Bedouin in Front All the Way.

Bedouin raced to the front soon after the start and, making all the running, wen easily by four lengths from Glencho, who was an easy second, elx lengths in front of Ralment.
